NAMELESS SCHOOL

JIMMY'S DAILY TALK

GRANDMA'S ARRIVAL

Mary: Jimmy, is it possible that Grandma is not coming to-day?

Jimmy: Oh no, she must have arrived already. I've checked with Airways Company and it said the plane would arrive on time.

Mary: (Looking out of the window) Oh, there's a taxi stopping at our gate. Yes! That's Father getting out of the car. Grandma's coming.

IDIOMS

1. to live on the fat of the land (Though he has failed in business and suffered a heavy loss, yet he is still rich enough to live on the fat of the land.)

2. through thick and thin (Let us stand shoulder to shoulder through thick and thin.)

3. the long and short of it (The long and short of it is that you won't succeed.)

4. in the long run (In the long run, your contribution to the society will be recognized.)

5. wide of the mark (It is very wide of the mark for I think that I want to marry John.)
