IDIOMS (36)
1. Worth his salt (met) (I know he was a man worth his salt; now his record proves I am right).
2. On tiptoe (and)

Vocabulary Quiz
Underline the word or words which best define the words in italics.
1. If Roland is greedy and mischievous he is:
   a. didactic
   b. irascible
   c. aversive
2. If you hate mathematics it is:
   a. your forte
   b. your bite
c. a fetish with you
3. Eva is extremely skillful in her work. She is:
   a. phlegmatic
   b. adroit
   c. serendipitous
4. If you travel incognito you travel:
   a. in luxury
   b. in haste
   c. in disguise

JIMMY'S DAILY TALK
THE NEW YEAR EVE
(Looking on the calendar, Mary seems to have discovered something.)
Mary: Jimmy, Jeez, there is only one sheet left in the calendar! I'll go home to-morrow to work, will you come too?
Jimmy: Yes, I haven't any work to-day.
Mary: (Smiling and jumping.) Ah yes, Jimmy, how shall we spend the New Year's Eve?
Jimmy: In a quiet manner. How about that?
Father: (Having heard the talking) Mary is right. There is no sense in giving parties all the time.
Jimmy: What idea do you, Daddy?
Father: Well, having been in the habit of Christmas, I'm a bit tired. How would you like it if we spent the New Year's Eve in a quiet manner?
Jimmy: In the parlor?
Father: To-night is the time passing from this year into the next. We may sit in the parlor, review our progress in the past year, and make some plans for the coming one. Mary: That sounds very good. I've never made any plans before. I'd like to try. Well, I'll tell mother to get ready for that too.
Jimmy: I'll get some cakes, candies and fruit. I may be more interested in these than in the plans.
Father: (Smiling) Jimmy can never forget eating. Well, you may eat whatever you like. It's a celebration after all.

Quizz of the Month
- What is the capital of Brazil?
- Who is the author of "To Kill a Mockingbird"?

VOCABULARY QUIZ
Underline the word or words which best define the words in italics.
1. If Roland is greedy and mischievous, he is:
   a. didactic
   b. irascible
   c. aversive
2. If you hate mathematics, it is:
   a. your forte
   b. your bite
   c. a fetish with you
3. Eva is extremely skillful in her work. She is:
   a. phlegmatic
   b. adroit
   c. serendipitous
4. If you travel incognito, you travel:
   a. in luxury
   b. in haste
   c. in disguise