After Seeing "Sorrows of the Forbidden City"

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, the American ambassador to China, was deeply moved by the performance of the opera "Sorrows of the Forbidden City." She said, "I have never seen such an emotional performance before."

Vaccine Deliveries Suspended

Washington, May 6

The United States Public Health Service has temporarily suspended all additional deliveries of the Salk anti-poliomyelitis vaccine. Surgeon-General Dr. Leonard A. Scheele announced today.

The suspension will continue, he said, until results of the latest investigations of the safety of the vaccine by medical committees are known.
