AN EXCITING MOMENT

It was Christmas Eve. I took a trip up to the sky club with stars that seemed like tiny lights poking down at me.

Suddenly in front of me there stood a kind old man. He wore a red robe, black boots and his hair was snow-white. He sat at me with a smile. I was scared, but I asked him and said, "To-night I'll see you at heaven."

"What? Heaven?"

At that time I was not sure what he meant. I asked him to close my eyes for a moment. So I did. Then we reached the heaven. When I opened my eyes, around me I saw many angels. We walked forward. Suddenly I heard big noises. So I asked that angel what had happened. He frowned and said, "It is the sound of horses trampling on the earth."

Hearing this I turned to look at the earth which was so gloomy and dirty. The noise was loud and loud. I was scared. But I didn't know what to do.

After a while, the church bells reached my ears. I looked above, everywhere was dark, but my heart was brighter than before.
