MEETING AN AIR-LINER

F. C. (Wan Yan H. K.)

After two years, uncle was coming home at last. He sent us a telegram beforehand, stating that he would travel in an air liner belonging to the Pan American Air Lines, which would arrive here at 3 p.m. on the 18th of March.

That afternoon, with mixed feelings, we drove to the Kaitaia Airport to meet him. After giving our tickets to an official, we stepped into the aeroplane, which was already crowded with foreign visitors. Uncle walked past the windows before entering the main entrance.

He said that the aeroplane was not only grand but also comfortable so that he had had a wonderful flight. Now the aeroplane was terribly crowded and noisy as more and more passengers had come out to meet their relations. Some were taking photographs; others were talking loudly and evidently did not think they would be forcibly to do so again. The sight was really marvellous!

As it was already towards dark and uncle was weary after the journey, we decided to leave the aeroplane and make our way home.

FORTUNE-TELLING

Thornhill Lam (T. T. C.)

Every country has its own ways of telling fortune. They differ in every point of view. It is still commonly employed as a matter of truth by both the ancient and modern. It is fortunate of a kind of superstition. As far as I know, nobody can tell.

First, the Gipsies, then the Portuguese are famous for their own because of their race, and their lives be in every country of Europe, America, or fixed homes, but travel from the surface of the ground. Hasten set up the cards, the fortune-tellers then pick out card from the rest. This very card is supposed to tell the fortune of the person. From the cards, we may see clearly that most of the gipsies, both men and women, must have their cards picked before the proceedings. Sometimes the smugglers or persons taking risk employ the same method, too.

The Chinese are somewhat different from the above-mentioned two races. They have their own characteristic in telling fortune. First of all, they tell fortunes by means of picking bamboo-shakes out of the bamboo-boxes. There is always someone who is willing to explain to you what is about. Of course, no doubt, money must change hands first. From this, you may learn which you will be rich, when you will be in danger, how you will escape from that danger, and things like that. The whole process and kind of fortune tellers try to read and person's palms and faces. These fortune-tellers would tell you your past and your future, such as:

1. Please write on one side of your paper; do not write on both sides.
2. Please write as clearly as you can; do not crowd your words together.
3. Please write at the end of your contribution, your real name, prefix name, paper name, address, and the number of words you have written — if it is a composition.
4. Compositions must not exceed 2200 words, preferably typewritten and double-spaced, and will be returned only when Return Postage is sent.
5. Compositions Nos. 31 and 10 are to be re-submitted and published in July, August, or September. The others (two numbers per J. 10) please to patient.

P.S. We know it is not easy to be patient, but please do try to understand and forgive as this is the only way to be PERS.

Very sincerely,
The Editor.

THOUGHTS: 1) What do you mean when you say it is not easy to be patient?

"What do you mean 'move on' — it is so obvious that the words are there?"

Think & Grin

PAUL: I have dreamed that I see a rat run and the rat runs there and there is no more rats.

PAUL: What kind of people you have most?

THOUGHTS: 1) What do you mean when you say it is not easy to be patient?

"What do you mean when you say it is not easy to be patient?"

"What do you mean when you say it is not easy to be patient?"
